Verse 1:

I am trying, i am searching to bring you something of worth

I am crying, i am sighing to prove you my devotion

Bridge 1:

No matter how hard i try, in the end i just sigh

In helplessness and weakness i now lie

Chorus:

You love me for me, open my eyes to see

My worth lies not on the outside shell

You love me for me, unconditional perfectly

It's not strain you want to see from me

So have me for me (love me for me / open my eyes to see)

Verse 2:

Now that i know, your love is here to show

Your work in me begins to grow

Bridge 2:

You say to me, just abide in me

My fruit will grow so naturally
