Verse 1:

So many times i stroll away, quickly i get led astray

You're patient every day, your grace will never pass away

Your grace, my reason to live on

Your grace, my strength to carry on

Your grace, keeps me on the path of life

Your grace, is this undeserved love

It's time for me to understand, your way is not a house of sand

The best flows out of your hand, you made this beautiful land
